

West Vancouver Schools has an established reputation for quality and innovation. Professional teachers, researchers and child development specialists work hand-in-hand to provide the solid emotional and social foundation needed for success in school and after graduation.

READY, SET, LEARN

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 2018

9:30-12:00 PM

WEST VANCOUVER COMMUNITY CENTRE

Ready, Set, Learn is hosted by community partners and sponsored by West Vancouver Schools. This early learning event for parents and children aged 3 years old is free of charge. Participants receive complimentary early learning resources, musical entertainment, story time, healthy living information for preschools, along with information about child development.

Join us for this free fun-filled early learning session to find out how West Vancouver Schools and its community partners tap each child's potential at play, in school and beyond.
