#1: Embrace Comics + Hybrid Novels

Even after Dad explained the whole "starter pistol" concept to me, I was still the worst swimmer on the team.

But I did end up winning "Most Improved" at the awards banquet at the end of the summer. That's only because there was a ten-minute difference between my first race and my last one.

So I guess Dad's still waiting for me to live up to my potential.

In a lot of ways, being on the swim team was worse than being in middle school.

First of all, we had to be at the pool by 7:30 every morning, and the water was always FREEZING cold.

TEARRILL, SHOCKING FACTS ABOUT ENGLAND!

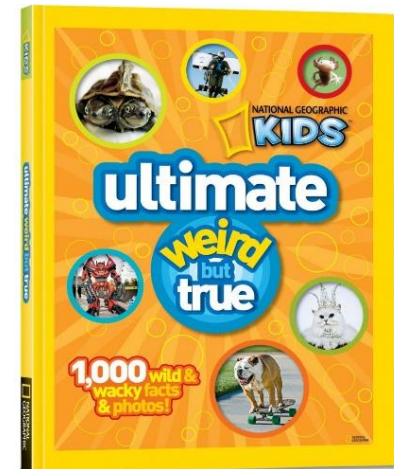

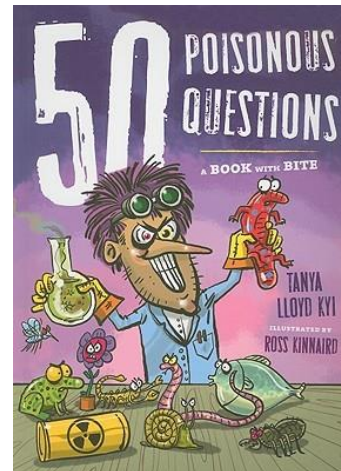

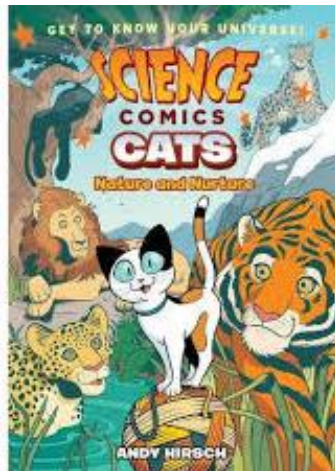

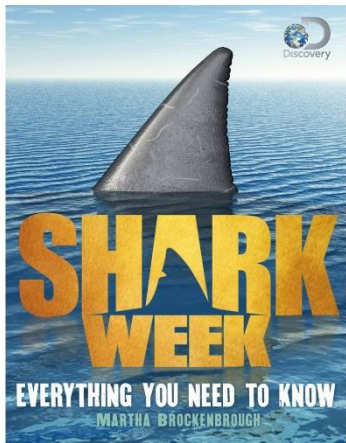

- ① They spell things differently! My teachers are going to think I'm stupid!
- ② The temperature only rises to 32 degrees in the summer!
- ③ They're probably going to hate me because they're all mad about winning the Revolutionary War!!

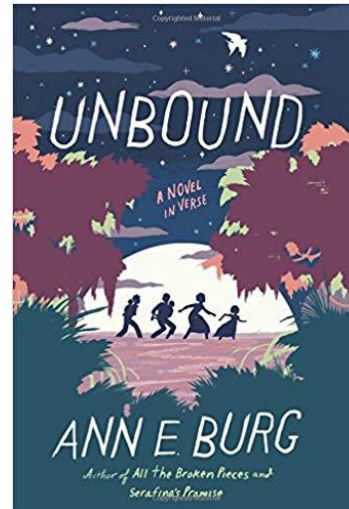

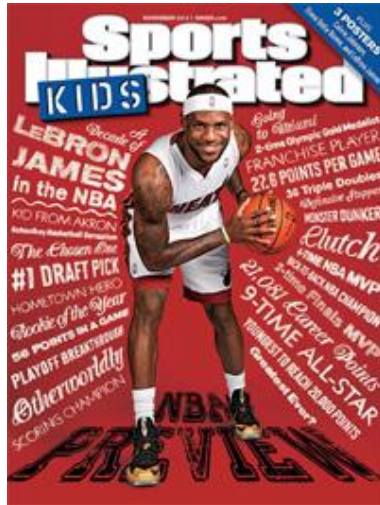

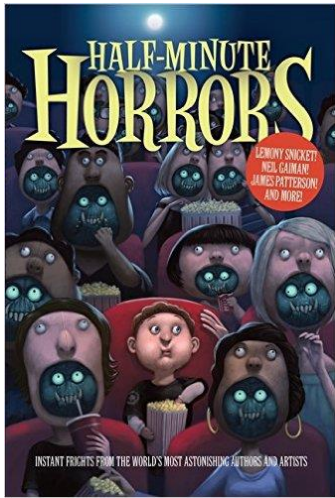

#2: Embrace Audiobooks

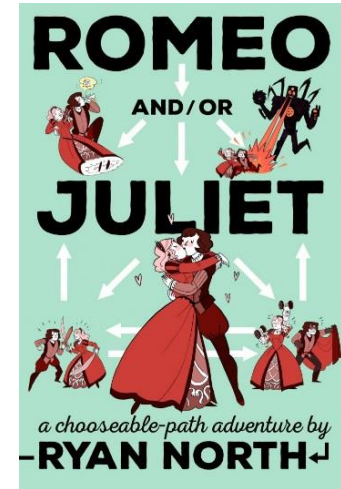

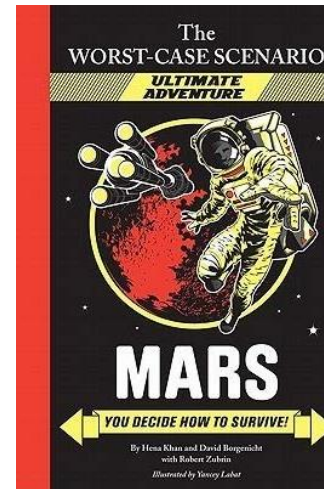

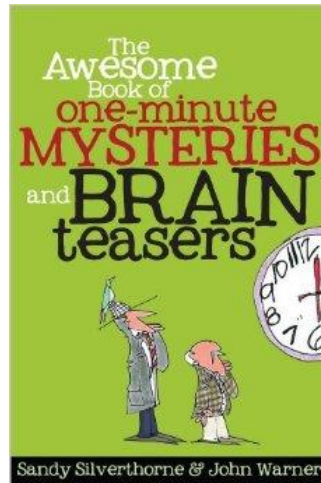

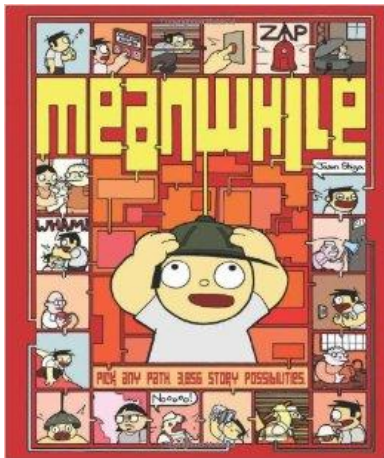

#3: Embrace Non-Fiction

#4: Embrace Shorter Chunks of Text

#5: Nonlinear reading is okay!

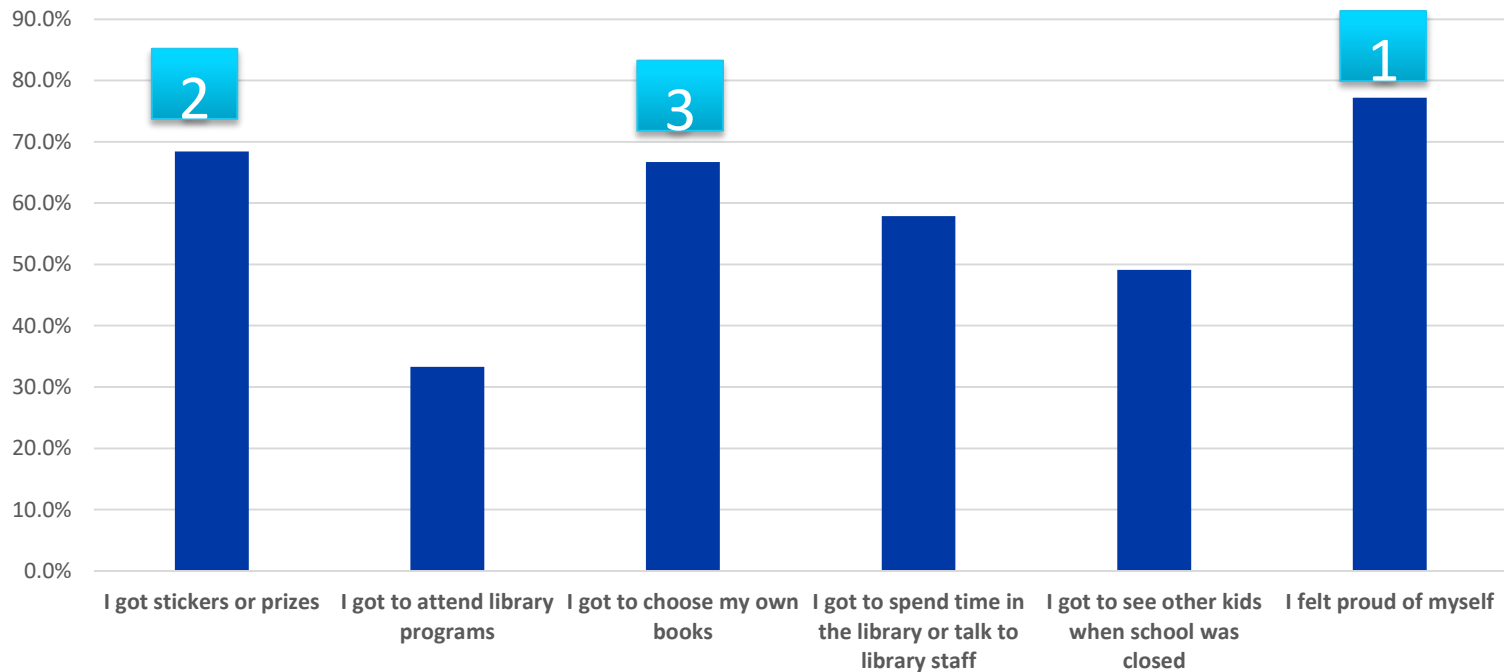

#6: Model Reading + Language

#7: Let kids choose their books

Library Strategic Plan Research

By a show of hands,
how many of you live in West
Vancouver?

What do you think is the best thing about growing up in West Vancouver?

What is the most challenging thing about growing up in West Vancouver?

Is there anything about living in your community that you wish you could change?

What do you think is the role of the public Library in supporting your child?

Pompom Ranking Exercise

- Each person gets 3 pompoms.
- You can put your 3 pompoms in any jar, in any combination you would like.
- You can put more than one pompom in a single jar.

Categories

Right now, it is most important that my child has the chance to:

- Learn English
- Play
- Gain Digital Literacy + Technology Skills
- Get Along With Others
- Be Creative
- Solve Problems
- Other (write on a piece of paper and put that in the jar, along with the pompom # of your choice)
