- Dear Chartwell Families, to summer plans. While summer is a wonderful time for rest, play, and unstructured fun, it can also be a valuable opportunity for children to explore new interests, maintain healthy routines, and stay socially and physically engaged.

and real-world experiences

We are fortunate to live in such a vibrant and beautiful community, and West Vancouver offers an incredible range of summer camps and activities through the Rec Centre and other local organizations. Whether it's a few hours a day of art, sports, nature exploration, or STEM-based fun, participating in structured
