ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

Basic Admissions Requirements	mru.ca/AdmissionRequirements High School applicants must present five Grade 12 level courses for admission. Included in these five courses, applicants must present the required subjects for their intended program of choice. The additional subject(s) which may be presented for admission include courses from Group A, B, or C . Admission is competitive, meaning students with higher grades will be considered first. Competitive averages will be calculated on the two highest Group A subjects. The competitive average varies from program to program and from year to year.
Minimum Admissions Average	To be eligible for admission, applicants must present a minimum admission average calculated on their five appropriate Grade 12 subjects used for admission to your program. Most programs also require a minimum grade in specific courses. The Admission Requirements chart provides a list of the specific required courses and minimum grade and the minimum final average for each program.
IB Information	Students in International Baccalaureate (IB) courses are required to provide a final, official transcript. Transcripts must be sent directly from the International Baccalaureate Organization (IBO) to Admissions at MRU. Applicants can request an official IB transcript through the IBO website.
AP Information	Students in Advanced Placement (AP) courses are required to provide a final, official transcript showing the results of AP coursework. Transcripts must be sent directly from the College Board to Admissions at MRU. Applicants can request official AP transcript through collegeboard.org .
Policy on repeated courses	The highest grade for any repeated course will be used towards admission
Policy on summer school, night school, online courses, and correspondence courses	Courses required for meeting minimum requirements or a final minimum admissions average are due by June 30 , meaning that summer school grades are too late for consideration.
Do you require the following?	<input type="checkbox"/> Literacy assessment <input type="checkbox"/> Numeracy assessment <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> X Neither
Do you accept Challenge exams?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> X No
Deferral Policy	A Deferral request can be submitted if a student has a medical reason making them unable to attend in the semester they applied to. Inclusion of a Doctor's note or other appropriate documentation will improve the likeliness that a deferral request will be approved.
Reporting of Grades	Self-reported grades are required for all High School applicants. Self-reported grades should be submitted at the time of application through ApplyAlberta.ca . If they do not submit self-reported grades at the time of applying, they will be contacted and we will request they provide self-reported grades at that time. The applicant is also welcome to contact us at aro@mtroyal.ca .

English Proficiency Requirements	Any applicant that indicates their first language is not English will be automatically flagged for English Language Proficiency requirement (ELP). If not, they will be required to take one of the listed ELP tests.
Application Instructions	Students may apply for up to two programs through applyalberta.ca . These program applications are not ordered as first choice or second choice and will be assessed separately. Applicants may receive an offer for one or both programs but they may accept one program offer only. It is advised that they accept the first program offered and then they may decide to “switch” should they receive an offer to their second program choice. It is advised that ALL applicants choose two programs on their application. This allows for alternatives and options moving forward if they do not receive admission into their first choice program.
Application Deadline & Fee	Early admission runs from Oct. 1 – Feb. 1 every admission cycle. Applications are accepted beyond this date until programs are declared full. See back of Viewbook for program deadlines. Application fee is $100.

These self-reported grades will be used to calculate the competitive average of the student and cannot be changed. We require a final transcript at the end of the grade 12 year to confirm that the students’ final grades are within a reasonable margin of error to those that were self-reported at the time of their application. Anticipated grades should be based on current grade or the actual grade from a reporting period for the previous level courses. An official transcript is required for any Grade 12 courses previously completed.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION First Year Scholarships: Online Application Required	Major Admission Awards require a minimum of 90.0% (IB 36 core) average to be considered. Additional criteria, such as school nomination and/or community activities, may apply for some awards. Applications must be received by 8 December 2022 – available to citizens or permanent residents of Canada. https://www.queensu.ca/registrar/financial-aid/application-required/future-students

Bursary Information	Admission Bursary application deadline is 15 February 2023 . Bursaries are based solely on financial need. Students must be citizens or permanent residents of Canada. WHAT'S NEW

New Program! Concurrent Education/Kinesiology: In September 2024, we will have a new direct entry ConEd/Kinesiology program. Available for the Intermediate/Senior teaching level only; teaching subjects will be Health and Physical Education in combination with one additional teachable subject - either Biology, Chemistry, Geography or Math.

STS – OUAC Process: Required to Submit Transcripts: Beginning last year, BC curriculum applicants to Queen's must connect their STS file to OUAC. On their OUAC application, they will include their PEN, and after submitting their OUAC application, they will select OUAC on their STS portal. The transcript that STS sends to OUAC will show interim grades as well as course enrollments that have been reported to the Ministry. When updated interim/midterm/enrollments are submitted, they will appear on STS and be transmitted to OUAC on an ongoing basis. This ensures grade updates are sent on an ongoing basis to OUAC, which then sends electronically directly to us. It will require that all current and future course enrollments are sent to the Ministry. This change has simplified the transcript process and allows for faster admission decisions.

Commitment Scholars: The Commitment Scholars Award celebrates and recognizes demonstrated leadership in, and commitment to, racial justice, social justice, or diversity initiatives by a student in their high school or in their community. Eligible candidates will be entering first year of any first-entry undergraduate degree program, who self-identify on the application as a member of an underserved or underrepresented group, including Black, Indigenous and other racialized students, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ2S+ individuals. Application deadline is 15 February 2023.

INSTITUTIONAL HIGHLIGHTS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • St. Thomas University offers small class sizes to foster connections between professors and students, and to allow for a more enriching learning environment. Our largest classes are capped at 60 students, but our average classes, including first-year classes, have 24 students. • St. Thomas University's emphasis on the liberal arts is unique among public institutions in Canada and ensures students develop a well-rounded, nuanced understanding of the complex issues with which we are faced as individuals and as a society. • Academic programming is exclusively and entirely within the arts (specifically, humanities and social sciences), leading to a unique focus on social responsibility inside and outside of the classroom. • Approximately half of our Bachelor of Arts students complete a double major, with several others completing a major and an honours, a major and several minors, or an honours and several minors. This can all be done within four years – or, in some cases, even less time! • As a primarily undergraduate institution, undergraduate students at STU do not have to compete with graduate-level students for the copious paid internship or campus job opportunities that are available annually. This allows students to build impressive resumes, network effectively within our capital city and beyond, and publish and present their peer-reviewed research alongside their faculty mentors.
