Crêpe Day (Fête d'hiver) TOMORROW

Tomorrow students at École Pauline Johnson will be celebrating Carnaval (Fête d'hiver). Students will participate in several engaging activities related to traditional Carnaval celebrations. One of these activities, led by the PJ PAC will be tasting delicious crêpes. Students will be given two crêpes each, served with warm berries and syrup. Students must bring a bag with a reusable plate, cutlery, and a napkin. They will bring their sticky plate and utensils back home, so a bag is essential. Students are also asked to bring their regular lunch, as the crêpes will only be a morning snack and do not replace lunch.

We will also be heading outside for some traditional dancing. Although the weather is expected to be mild and we will only be outside for a short period of time, we would love to see students dress in a fun, classic winter style; think earmuffs, scarves, mittens, “fur,” winter boots, and any variation of plaid/flannel.
