Looking back:

- Grade 6/7 vaping presentation, introduction to Foundry
- Basketball Season was a success
- ArtStarts; Tidal Wave presentation took place in February
- Family Friday was very popular
- Lacrosse was a success

Looking ahead:

- Playground upgrade has begun, HPAC will vote to contribute a communication board to the playground
- Wonka Jr. School wide musical is approaching! More information will be coming soon regarding dates, tickets and volunteer opportunities. We are so proud of the cast and crew!
- Bathroom upgrades: the WV school board will be upgrading the plumbing and fixtures the girls and boys ground floor bathrooms took place over spring break

- The Card Project, students have submitted art work and families are encouraged to participate. All Proceeds to support school initiatives and programming
- Track and Field Season begins. Practices and meets will begin soon, offering more opportunities for student involvement and movement
- Kindergarten Orientation planning. Admin is preparing to welcome our newest Hollyburn Learners this spring!
- School Zone Safety and signage, new signage has been installed to help ensure safe drop offs and pick up zones. Ongoing reminders will continue on where to park while dropping off and picking up students.
- School continued focus on student wellbeing
- As we head into the final term, staff are working hard to support student learning and wellness. This includes continued check-ins, peer connection opportunities and proactive problem solving around social dynamics

Grade 7 promotion ceremony

Will be held on Thursday June 19. Staff will organize the promotion ceremony. There will then be decorations and an area in the courtyard for photos as well as a small treat provided.
