Nikta Razavi & Dani Renouf – Women Life Freedom
In September 2022, a young woman, called Mahsa Amini, was beaten by the "Morality Police" in Iran for violating mandatory hijab laws. She died 3 days later, and her death sparked a wave of outrage which led to the arrest of over 20,000 protestors and tragic loss of approximately 600 lives, some as young as 9 years old. Across the world, in Canada, a group of mothers from West Bay school who identified as Iranian Canadians, came together to develop an advocacy strategy to educate their community about human rights in Iran, to dispel myths, and to provide classroom resources (lesson plans) for teachers on the topic of the Woman-Life-Freedom movement. Nikta and Dani will discuss how they continue to present to schools and educators the history of Iranian women's plight for freedom and justice, their own personal stories of the lived experience of the diaspora, and to share strategies and ideas on how schools can continue to educate students about social justice, women's rights, and human rights from a grassroots level.
