

There are so many great stories that emerged from this year's Grade 9 Take Our Kids to Work Day (TOKTWD).
This annual event is held Canada-wide.

work as a civil engineer in tunnel construction.

The Rockridge Remembrance Day Assembly showcased many of our students' presentation talents. It was a beautiful assembly that honoured the past and communicated a message of hope and peace for the future.

Executive members of the Rockridge Interact Club (Kathy W. Yuumi Y. & Adele A.) recently attended a West Vancouver Rotary breakfast meeting to present a cheque from the very successful Pumpkins for Polio fundraiser in October. The club raised an outstanding $1300!

Success on multiple fields this fall: Rockridge's Joseph H.G. was not only a member of the Ravens Sr. Boy's soccer team this fall, he also represented BC at the National Soccer Championships in Moncton where he and his club returned as the BU17 National Champions!

Winter season athletics are getting underway. We are even finding creative ways to ensure there is space for our wrestling team to practice alongside the busy basketball season.
