

On Tuesday and Thursday last week Rockridge hosted the West Vancouver Elementary Volleyball Jamboree! This was a great chance to have future Ravens play in the gym and for family members to visit our school.

In other volleyball action last week, our Sr. Raven Girls played in the “Win the Day” Volleyball Jamboree celebrating the life of teacher, coach and wonderful individual Mike MacNeil. This special annual event also raises funds for cancer research.

Homemade & Store Bought Desserts Needed!

Staff Holiday Cookie Extravaganza!

Looking for bakers and volunteers to bring in desserts for our lovely Rockridge staff.

On Wednesday Rockridge hosted a West Vancouver Schools International Program Parent Cafe in our Learning Commons. We had a fantastic turnout for the program which included a presentation from our Careers Department about 8-12 Curriculum Support, Experiential learning opportunities, post secondary information and a Rockridge student panel.

COLLABORATION MORNING AT THE ROCK

Here's a 40 second video to see what a fairly typical collaboration day looks like at Rockridge.
