OUR SENIOR FRENCH CLASSES HAD A VISIT WITH MME. RAYMOND 2 WEEKS AGO, WHO HELPED THE CLASSES ENGAGE IN FRENCH DISCUSSION, LEARNING ABOUT DRUMS FROM AROUND THE WORLD AND CALMING DOWN WITH MUSIC.

Thanks Ms. Riahi for organizing this learning opportunity!

Ms. Riahi's senior French classes met with Mme. Raymond who helped them explore French discussion, drumming around the world and using music to regulate emotions. This opportunity was organized by Ms. Riahi and supported financially by a bursary from the federal government and the Parents for French organization.

Above - Rockridge Interact Club members visited Caulfeild Elementary to work with the Grade 4 / 5 classes to create Christmas cards for seniors. The Club members will be helping at the West Vancouver Seniors Holiday Luncheon this weekend where they will give out the cards.

Below - Rockridge Student Council kicked off the holiday season with a special cookies and cocoa morning last Thursday. The free treats were a hit with our students and certainly added to the joy of the Rockridge holiday magic time of year.
