Belonging Through Our Eyes

Photography Challenge for Youth

Stories of Home, Hope, and Community

What does belonging mean to you?

We invite im/migrant youth (ages 13 to 24) on the North Shore to capture moments of home, hope, and community. Your photo could highlight:

- A place that feels like home
- Connections with others
- Kindness, inclusion, or cultural traditions
- Nature or community experiences

Participate to celebrate diversity, share your unique perspective, and give voice to your experience of belonging. Your photo and story can inspire others, spark reflection, and connect people across differences.

Celebrate your community and show what belonging looks like to you!

Submission Deadline:
Saturday, January 31, 2026

Visit our website for submission instructions and guidelines:

parent evening with Sarah Ward on Executive Functioning

Wednesday, January 28th
$20 per ticket

Sarah Ward is an internationally recognized expert in executive function. Her practical, research-informed strategies are widely regarded as groundbreaking in supporting student learning and independence.

Drawing from executive function coaching approaches used with elementary, secondary, post-secondary students and adults, this session will help build academic success by exploring time management, task prioritization, long-term project planning and the development of independent learning habits.

What Parents will Gain From This Evening

Understand

Parents will gain a clear, reassuring understanding of how executive function skills develop over time, why children may struggle with organization and time management, and what is developmentally typical at different ages.

Learn

Parents will learn practical, easy-to-use strategies they can apply at home to strengthen their child's time awareness, organization, study routines and follow-through for academic success.
