WEST BAY CELEBRATES DIVERSITY TUESDAY 11 JUNE

Students and staff are encouraged to dress colourfully on Tuesday, June 11, to show support for West Bay being a safe and inclusive school that values diversity and celebrates students for who they are and who they want to be.

Two wonderful longtime staff, Jane Standfield and Morag Kelpin, will be retiring after this year. Parents are welcome to join us in the learning Commons on June 13 at 3:30 to share your well wishes. They have made an impact on so many students' lives and will be greatly missed. This is an adult only event so please leave children at home.

LEAVING EARLIER THAN 3:00

Please email teachers and office first thing in the morning. All students need to be signed out at the office if departing before 3:00 PM.

Joint Band:

Eagle Song

Grade 7:

Ultimatum, Louie Louie, Funkytown

CULTURAL PERFORMANCE

West Bay students enjoyed a performance, "SAM2" by Scrap Arts Music on Monday. This do-it-yourself musical performance was creative, engaging and environmentally friendly. Scrap Arts Music transforms "scrap into art" and "arts into music" using instruments crafted from salvaged and recycled materials. Thank you to the West Bay PAC for supporting this event for our students.

GRADE 1 STUDENTS' DUNDRAVE VILLAGE FIELD TRIP

Grade Ones ventured out on Monday morning to a light and sound fun filled field trip at Dundarave Village! Looking for sources of light and sound, students found natural and artificial sources! The rain did not stop them as they still enjoyed a fun morning of learning stopping at multiple places before taking the bus back to school. Thank you to our parent volunteers.

WVML SUMMER READING CLUB

(Visiting West Bay on 12 June)

The Summer Reading Club is for students in Kindergarten to grade six. The Teen Summer Reading Club is for students entering grade seven or above. The programs are free and are a wonderful way to encourage reading and keep up literacy skills.

Did you know students that are registered can read from anywhere they happen to be in the summer and in any language? They just check back when they return, even if that's early September.
