4. DISSOLVE PERFORMANCE: Wed April 19th, 2023 at Rockridge – 7:00 pm

Written By Meghan Gardiner, Directed By Renée Iaci, and Starring Emmelia Gordon. Presented by West Vancouver Schools, North Vancouver School District, and Family Services of the North Shore.

Wednesday, April 19, 7pm - Doors open at 6:30 pm.

Dissolve addresses the serious issues of sexual consent, drink spiking and drug-facilitated sexual assault from a darkly humorous perspective. Following a college girl on a night out, moving back and forth from home to bar scenes, one actress plays 16 characters, both comic and dramatic. Night turns to morning, and “Anygirl” awakens from her ordeal, disoriented. The show is designed to provoke thought and dialogue around drink spiking and consent, and challenge our thinking and behaviour surrounding these topics. The show is 45 minutes long and a talkback will follow the performance with Family Services of the North Shore Sexual Assault Response team.

Dissolve is best suited for mature adolescents and their accompanying caregivers due to sensitive content, and strong language. While there is no graphic visuals or descriptions, Dissolve does include references to gender-based violence, victim blaming, and drug facilitated sexual assault which may be upsetting to some viewers.

If you or someone you know has been affected by sexual violence, support is available through the Family Services of the North Shore’s Sexual Assault Response Program by contacting 604-924-7676.
