Subject: site unseen

Congratulations!

To you and to all of those who contributed to the success of this impressive project. Jackie's concept and execution of site unseen is outstanding-a meaningful and appropriate tribute for Canada 150.

West Vancouver has a history of creativity and it is reassuring to see this legacy continues with leadership from educators like Jackie, and the many public and private supporters of the arts and culture in this area.

Wednesday's opening was an event that linked communities-especially important in today's environment.

The Museum was bursting with the chatter and excitement of 300 visitors. It was evident that lasting friendships have been forged and there still benefits to come.

Well done, Jackie and your team of collaborators.

With regards,

Merla Beckerman,
