THE NORTH SHORE MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY HELPS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY LEARN ABOUT AND UNDERSTAND THE SYSTEMS AND SERVICES AVAILABLE IN CANADA.

We are a not-for-profit agency providing a full range of individual and group services including: settlement information and orientation, English language, employment and diversity services. Our mission is to help you achieve a working knowledge of Canadian social, economic and cultural systems.

SETTLEMENT WORKERS IN SCHOOLS (SWIS)

The SWIS program partners with the North Vancouver School District and the West Vancouver School District to provide a school-based outreach program that helps newcomer students and their families settle into their school and community.

SETTLEMENT WORKERS IN SCHOOLS (SWIS)

Are you new to Canada and your child attends a North Shore elementary or secondary school?

The SWIS program can help:

- parents understand Canadian culture and school systems
- increase parent involvement in the school and community
- access information, resources and North Shore programs and services

SWIS Workers meet with students and families one-to-one to provide support and to facilitate meetings between families, students and school staff. Workshops are held to provide information and support for students and families in a group setting.

SWIS services are available in Farsi, Mandarin, Cantonese, Korean, Tagalog, French and English. Access to interpretation services for other languages is available as needed.

Services are government sponsored and free of charge.
